

2024 A Levels Results

Celebrating Our Students' Success

LSI Independent College is delighted to announce our students' A Levels results. Our students and staff have worked diligently to achieve these outcomes, and we are thrilled to celebrate their success. For more information about our A Levels courses, please contact admissions@lsi.edu.

- 57% admitted to prestigious Russell Group universities.
- 100% of our medical candidates placed in Russell Group universities.
- 100% pass rate in Humanities, 72% of Humanities students achieved A grades.
- 100% of our Medicine and Dentistry candidates have secured university placements in the UK and internationally (pending final results).
- 100% of our language students received A grades.
- 200% average grade improvement was achieved by all retake students.
- 63% of our students achieved A grades, and 88% obtained grades A-C.*

What Our Students Say About A Levels at LSI College

"My experience has been good! There are nice small class sizes so you get lots of focused attention which is really good. If you're considering LSI College, be prepared for a very studious lifestyle and it's right for you if you're really serious about getting good grades."

— Chloe, A Levels Student (2023-2024) Who Improved Her Score by 200%